"Fine"

Upon a roof below the moon nearby a park-bench in the sun upon the stairway to your room Why won't you wrap your life around those certain words I just found

I wear your golden ring inside
suits me very fine
I wear your golden heart in mine
suits me very fine

A backseat sofa in the dark upon a viewpoint in our town nearby a fountain in a park
Why won't you wrap your life around
those certain words I just found

I wear your golden ring inside
suits me very fine
I wear your golden heart in mine
suits me very fine
I wear your golden heart in mine
and life is very fine
