Always told me the way you're feeling
All about your worthless dreaming
Never thought that this would change
Thought that you felt the same

So I'll just stand here knowing nothing
Watching you turn into something
Someone that I only know by name
Someone that I only know
Someone that I only know
Someone that I only know by name

Which one's lost, me or you?
One on one, maybe two
Both our lives are upside down
Maybe yours just turned around

So I'll just stand here knowing nothing
Watching you turn into something
Someone that I only know by name
Someone that I only know
Someone that I only know
Someone that I only know by name

So I'll just stand here knowing nothing
Watching you turn into something
Someone that I only know by name
Someone that I only know
Someone that I only know
Someone that I only know by name
Someone that I only know by name
Someone that I only know by name
