I've been heart broken
Maybe a little frozen
All the constant fights
The hard good byes
My heart exploded
So my minds been roamin'
I don't know where to go
Resigned to be alone
Scared to fall in an ocean deep
Cuz you walked through like a dream
A perfect song I had to sing
But everyone says there is no such thing

I'm begging you to open me
I don't care if I have to bleed
Baby I'll do what it takes even if I break
As long as I'm awake with you

I'm begging you to open me
Baby I just wanna finally see
What love is all about even if I drown
I'll be lost and found with you

Open me (4X)

Finding a reason
To stop believin'
I'm trying to run away
From his past mistakes
Sometimes I stop breathing
When I picture you leaving
Even though you say
You'll never walk away

Can I tell you a secret now?
I see my self walking down that aisle
I can't believe I said it out loud
But something happens when I catch your smile

I'm begging you to open me
I don't care if I have to bleed

Baby I'll do what it takes even if I break
As long as I'm awake with you
I'm begging you to open me
Baby I just wanna finally see
What love is all about even if I drown
I'll be lost and found with you

If we're all lost
Lost in this life
I want to be lost in you tonight

If we're all lost
Lost in this life
I want to be lost in you tonight

I'm begging you to open me
I don't care if I have to bleed
Baby I'll do what it takes even if I break
As long as I'm awake with you

I'm begging you to open me
Baby I just wanna finally see
What love is all about even if I drown
I'll be lost and found with you

Open me (8X)
