If you feel the words inside, then why don't you say them?
And is it fear or is it pride that makes you hold it in?
And if you think of me that way, then why don't tell me?
'Cause somehow I know you love me if only you'd let yourself see

That we got something special between the two of us
And we got something special in true love, do you trust me?
We got something wonderful that no one can deny
We got something special, just believe and it won't die

In this painful game of love, I learned to take my chances
'Cause though it hurts sometimes, true love doesn't take second glances
And if you think you found the one, don't let it slip away
The truth is you have choices, don't let yourself regret the day

We got something special between the two of us
And we got something special in true love, do you trust me?
We got something wonderful that no one can deny
We got something special, just believe and it won't die

Don't fight this feeling anymore
Do you fear that it could be something more?
So don't you walk away, don't you let this break
'Cause I might be falling free right into this love I see

We got something special between the two of us
We got something special in true love, do you trust me?
We got something wonderful that no one can deny
We got something special, just believe and it won't die
