God loves you, soul sister, God loves you true
God loves you, soul sister, and I love you, too
God loves you, soul sister, God loves you true
God loves you, soul sister, and I love you, too

You're so young and innocent, darling
You were born in May
Don't let anyone try to rearrange you
Come what may

It's such a wonderful feeling
When you can love whoever you want
Just open the door to the world
And think of your future as a prosperous one

God loves you, soul sister, God loves you true
God loves you, soul sister, and I love you, too

It may seem kind of hard at times, baby
That you'll have to cry
But those are the things you can talk about, honey
In the holy stage of God

Go ahead and keep up the good work
I will wait a thousand years
You're the only, only girl
Who can drive away, who can drown my fears

God loves you, soul sister, God loves you true
God loves you, soul sister, and I love you, too
Just stay that way, darling
Just stay that way, darling
Just stay that way, darling...
