All The Reasons Why
There's a boy I sit next to
He whispers "I love you"
I laugh cuz I know that he don't mean it
We always say that to each other
I try to look away from him
But secretly I'm wishing that he'll be my lover

We're best friends
But in the end
I wish we were more
And I do, more than the day before
Oh whoa oh

[Chorus]
He's all the reasons
Why I keep on believin'
He'll sweep me off my feet
We'll ride off into our perfect fairytale
In the end he'll be with me
It'll be the princess with her perfect male
Oh but he's all the reasons why we don't have that today
He's all the reasons why I say what I say
Oh whoa oh

[2nd Verse]
He's my best friend,
I laugh at his jokes even when they ain't funny
All the time, I pretend
Like I don't like it when he calls me honey

I smile at him
And act like it doesn't get under my skin

Like I don't know that

[Chorus]
He's all the reasons
Why I keep on believin'
He'll sweep me off my feet
We'll ride off into our perfect fairytale

In the end he'll be with me
It'll be the princess with her perfect male
Oh but he's all the reasons why we don't have that
today
He's all the reasons why I say what I say
Oh whoa oh

[Bridge]
So maybe I'll tell him today
If I can get out the words I wanna say
Oh I need to tell him that

[Final Chorus]
He's all the reasons
Why I keep on believin'
He'll sweep off my feet
We'll ride off into our perfect fairytale
In the end he'll be with me
It'll be the princess with her perfect male
Oh but he's all the reasons why we don't have that
today
He's all the reasons why I say what I say
Oh whoa oh

[Final Verse]
All the reasons why
