THE CALL

You've been acting a little strange lately
You won't let me go
But you refuse to call me
What happened, I don't know

Something is happening here
And I don't know if this is worth a single tear
Are you okay, you're making me full of doubt
Baby, talk to me, we can work this out

Oh but I don't know what's going on
This is wrong
I should've known when you didn't call
When I sat by the phone all night long
Baby I think we've hit a wall
You want me back, but we're far apart
We're just on a break, we're breaking up, but you know you have my heart
What's wrong, you're not talking at all
And I'm still sitting, waiting on the call

I guess I should've seen it before
From the second you slipped away out of my hands
When I was second guessing everything I don't know anymore
When I didn't understand

I should've seen it, should've felt the break
One day, you and I are no more
But then next we're back to what we were before

You can't make up your mind
Is this hello or goodbye?

Oh that I don't know what's going on
This is wrong
I should've known when you didn't call
When I sat by the phone all night long
Baby I think we've hit a wall
You want me back, but we're far apart
We're just on a break, we're breaking up, but you

know you have my heart
What's wrong, you're not talking at all
And I'm still sitting, waiting on the call

You stand at the door and wave at me
Then you leave
And I think, will he be back?
If you said no, I have to wonder is that for a fact?
Whoa oh oh oh

Oh I don't know what's going on
This is wrong
I should've known when you didn't call
When I sat by the phone all night long
Baby I think we've hit a wall
You want me back, but we're far apart
We're just on a break, we're breaking up, but you
know you have my heart
What's wrong, you're not talking at all
And I'm still sitting, waiting on the call
