You, you called me princess
You held my hand and swore we'd be together
Yooooouuu used to tell me I look beautiful in the ugliest dress
I thought I'd be with you forever
Oh but the princess lost her prince

We were like a wildflower growing free
We were like a short summer breeze
But now in a short twist, there's nothing left for you and me

We unraveled slowly
I should have seen this before
When you kissed me
But your eyes didn't close anymore (no, no)
Baby you were my sun
Now we're coming undone
What happened to us?
Weren't we in love?
Back to the start, start, start
But you still have my heart, heart, heart
Oh we're coming undone

It's hard to stay in love
When the whole world has given up
I'm missing my prince and trusty steed
I'm missing the one I really need
Oh and we're falling out of love

Oh I slammed the door behind my back
Praying you would follow my tracks
And now you're gone, gone
So here I am admitting I was wrong, wrong
But you can't take apologies, why?

Ohhhhhh we unraveled slowly

I should have seen this before
When you kissed me
But your eyes didn't close anymore (no, no)
Baby you were my sun

Now we're coming undone
What happened to us?
Weren't we in love?
Back to the start, start, start
But you still have my heart, heart, heart
Oh we're coming undone

I will lose my sleep for you
Nights drag on and on without your love to get me through
My heart hurts cuz I know this is how I feel
I know this feeling has to be real
Baby why aren't you there to catch my tears?
Why are you the very reason I'm crying tonight, hanging on to every fear?
No oh, oh no, no why, why, why did

We unravel slowly
I should have seen this before
When you kissed me
But your eyes didn't close anymore (no, no)
Baby you were my sun
Now we're coming undone
What happened to us?
Weren't we in love?
Back to the start, start, start
But you still have my heart, heart, heart
Oh we're coming undone

Undone, e whoa we're coming undone
Slipping off our rope, undone
