When I think of you and your gorgorous eyes
I wonder if I'm on your mind
I wonder if you wish you'd said goodbye
When I think of you I try hard not to cry

When I think about all the days we never had
I can't help but feel a little sad
Cuz I know you're not coming back
When I think of you I try not to face the facts
Oh cuz

I know, I know that where you are is better for you
But I don't know how I'll make it through
Cuz when I think of you I smile
But then I'm faced with denial
When I think of you I wonder all the time
Do you regret goodbye?
Oh oh oh
There is nothing that could help me through
Oh oh oh nothing but happiness when I think of youuuu

You have warm eyes that make me melt
And I regret never telling you the way I felt
I wish we could come together now
Cuz now that you're gone, you're all around

When I think of you I fall apart
Cuz I know, I know that you still have my heart
And I look up at the stars tonight
Feels like I'm looking in your eyes
And I whisper how I feel about you every night

Oh whoa oh oh whoa e yeah yeah

I know, I know that where you are is better for you
But I don't know how I'll make it through
Cuz when I think of you I smile
But then I'm faced with denial
When I think of you I wonder all the time
Do you regret goodbye?
Oh oh oh
There is nothing that could help me through

Oh oh oh nothing but happiness when I think of youuuu

When I think of you I think about the good times
I think about everything I wish I had said
I wonder why oh why
But at least I know what I'll say if I see you again
See you again
Oh whoa oh oh oh see you agaiinnnnn

I know, I know that where you are is better for you
But I don't know how I'll make it through
Cuz when I think of you I smile
But then I'm faced with denial
When I think of you I wonder all the time
Do you regret goodbye?
Oh oh oh
There is nothing that could help me through
Oh oh oh nothing but happiness when I think of youuuu

But at least I know that you think of me
Think of me
