The burning darkness from within
Those dirty looks which were given
The people with their dirty eyes
Think your date is just a prize
A prize you want for all your own
A prize which shouldn't have been shown
Your jeleousy rages on
You just wanted that bitch gone
You went upstairs took out a knife
In the kitchen you killed your wife
She was yours
And yours alone
And now with her carcas you will roam
For a place which is old and weary
A new found lust in a cemetary
You scatter her bones, oh so well
Will this deed put you in hell
Hell on earth

And earth is hell
Your heart within, wants to yell
What have you done, just cuz one look
And see from her what you took
There is only one place which is your sanctuary
And that is when you're in the cemetary
Your love, your life all is gone
What has she done wrong
This new-found life is very scary
Without your lust in the cemetary
You shall never again mary
Because your lust in the cemetary
This new-found life is very scary
Without your lust in the cemetary
You shall never again mary
Because your lust in the cemetary
