Don't waste your time fighting blind minded thoughts of despair.

Hold on to your love. You've got to hold on. Hold on to your love.

Just things that I know now.

Runnin amuck, don't give a (expletive). I've had enough of your breed.

Living it up and coming out but not to follow your creed.
Cos I'm a fool. There ain't nothing you can change about me.

Crack your lip open if you keep testing my patience.

Innovative and ever underrated is I,
like a nice guy charming your lady without even trying.
Cos a cunning linguistic mystic is I, giving the most high my devoted eye because I run the regime contemplating a scheme.
Makin it seem easy to live and harder to die.
You live a life full of regret cos you never tried,
but I'll be chillin at the top cos I've been on the grind.

And did you think I would really change?
You're lucky I know how to rage.
I'm gonna play that gig in the sky.
And I'm gonna rock it so my soul can shine

Cos I'm no more derranged than the average man and I know you feel the same.
And I won't be swayed by them sultry eyes because I know how to play the game.
Just things that I know now.

Living this dream at the top of the world.
Everyday unfurls something better and better.
And over and under, people falling asunder for the sake of another but every man for themselves.

Cos every other week has a piece of the big dream.
Streaming all night. Try to get some sleep.
Feeling alright cos I'm on my feet.
And I'm living it up so I can rest in peace.

Fight stance without moving.
Crucial execution of a method unknown to every mediocre foe thinking I won't toss them out the back of my rodeo, cos that's just the business.
Cos you can't fake this.
And I ain't playing them games with those chumps runnin their mouth defaming my name.
Cos I'll be coming out swining and I ain't gon miss.
Looking back with a smile as I remenisce.

Cos I'm no more derranged than the average man and
I know you feel the same.
And I won't be swayed by them sultry eyes because I
know how to play the game.
Just things that I know now.

Mellow you down with sounds from the underground.
Lettin my soul shine cos I'm paving the way.
Since I'm outa control then I don't care what they say.
Cos I've been gettin to the top of every level of the game
and I've been smilin and laughing, sittin back and relaxing.
Keep you moving and grooving smooth in unison.
Choosin to be free from all your worries stackin up each day.
No more having anymore of what you can't take.
Cos I'm a general coming from the trenches gettin colder with age and ever relentless.
Ammunition I spit like a trigger happy villain.
Reiterating every word that I've ever written to please
the most high and I.
And I know that you can't take a fall from the rodeo.
Cos I'll be coming out swinging and I ain't gon miss.
Looking back with a smile as I remenisce, now.

Don't wast your time fighting blind minded thoughts of dispair.
Hold on to your love. You've got to hold on. Hold on to
your love.
Just things that I know now.
Just things that I know now.
Just things that I know now.
Just things that I know now
