I never thought one day you'd be gone
Away forever more
No one can say, no one could explain
Why you were taken

Oh, where are you now?
Could I get there somehow?

It's time to say goodbye
Block out the sun and pack up the sky
Don't let my tears start to make you cry
Each time I try to say my goodbye
Try to stop asking why

Tell me it's true
Tell me there's something more
Another time for love
One day I'll know, one day I'll be there
Will you be waiting?

Oh, where you are now?
Could I get there somehow?

It's time to say goodbye
Block out this sun and pack up the sky
Don't let my tears start to make you cry
Each time I try to say my goodbye
Try to stop asking why
Try to stop asking why, yeah

Where are you now?
Could I get there somehow?

It's time to say goodbye
Block out the sun and pack up the sky
Don't let my tears start to make you cry
Each time I try to say my goodbye
Try to stop asking why, why
Try to say my goodbye
