"English Country Garden"

It was a cigarette break and I was des...perate
When I saw her pushing that wheelbarrow
She said have you got a match? and I said yes!

My cock and Farmer Giles prizewinning marrow Frolicking in the summer fields were we
I fell for you and you grew to like me

I carved "You for me" in the bark of a tree in an English
Country Garden
We rolled around, kissing on the ground in an English
Country Garden
You succumbed to my charms, fell asleep in my arms in an English Country Garden
Beneath the stars above we fell in love in a English
Country Garden

Jardin Jardin Jardin Jardin

They did a quiz at the village fete and we came last Everybody laughed at the two of us but I've never seen a bale of hay move so fast
She was a bonafide forking genius Frolicking in the autumn fields were we
I cherished you and you tolerated me

We mucked about while we were mucking out in an
English Country Garden
Took me under your wing when we had our fling in an
English Country Garden!
You gave my heart a boost, you ruled the roost in an
English Country Garden
Just as I got broody you got moody in an English
Country Garden'

[SOLO and lengthy "KeyTar" medley section]

'Pulled out all the stops, harvested the crops in an
English Country Garden
The yield was meager, you were far less eager in an

English Country Garden
Seeds we scattered, never really mattered in a English
Country Garden
I saw you leave the farm on another guy's arm in an
English Country Garden

Jardin Jardin Jardin Jardin wooh!
