We met on that place... didn't we? Now U can no longer... do anything, but...

We met in this town... didn't we... ? Now I can no longer... love anyone, but...

Now you are..on that hill, Togheter we saw... this sky we're looking at
Now I am... in this sky, We were there... looking at that hill

The whitering flower, like on that time, Even once more would be enough,
It wants to bloom beautifully
On this night... The heart and the ideals... melt into the darkness,
At least just for tonight
By your side...

Goodbye, goodbye... goodbye... goodbye...

The whitering flower, like on that time, Even once more would be enough,
It wants to bloom beautifully
On this night... The heart and the ideals... melt into the darkness,
At least just for tonight

While our interlocked fingers loosen, I, who am sinking deeply, loved the you that I last saw
A dream unfulfilled... I wait on that hill.
I want to sleep with you... a dream unawakened

The past may not return, but... in my rebirth I will search for you
So untill that time wait for me... but for now on that hill is still...
