Outsiders applaud as they watch television
Please enjoy the show about to come on.
At the end of the trick of manipulating and being manipulated *1
Night after night after night after night
Making a "house call" to enjoy a late snack. *2
Re incarnate

The assailant makes a rusty grinding sound *3
Grab the left and right brain in the skull
An inverted love, a crowd of abuse
Night after night after night after night
Making a "house call" to enjoy the erratic speed.
Re incarnate

The victim applauds tears and wounds
Without giving up on facing the truth
Ladies and gentlemen bursting into laughter, please enjoy.
Night after night after night after night
Making a "house call" to enjoy this short life
Re incarnate

When I was but a child fragile as glass
To see how deep I could make the wounds...
I stabbed my heart with the shards
To see how much pain I could take...

Death Warrant
The end will soon come
Death Warrant
Just a little longer... I can hear it.
