"R To The Core"

You're the one that's stupid
You're a pig, acting all honest
But you hide your true self
Can't hear anything, can't feel anything
This is a place of contradiction

My heart screamed out
You make fun of me
Like you make fun of my dead left ear

I know everyone isn't like that
But I can't accept everything
So I still, even now scream out in a hoarse voice
To all you rotten people

There is an answer
So writhe in agony
And let your will to live come out
Everyone's the same once they sin
