FATE

It ain't sane, so play
Into the night
Honey, open your mouth

FATE

It ain't sane, so jump
Into the night
Honey spread your wings
Into the night
I give you all a lie worth nothing and screams

Fuckin' tricky men

Mother

The pieces of my wish all come together now
Let my hostile voice be heard as I live this moment

I may be tainted
But I can't forgive them
Ever...

I'll rip away the wings of the blind
Will no longer demand

Mother
My incompetent voice of just living
My long lost dreams turn into foolish bubbles
Disappear

Fuckin' tricky men
