Hydrogen in our veins, it cannot hold itself
Our blood is boiling
And the pressure in our bodies that echoes up above
It is exploding
And our particles that burn it all
Because they aim for each other
And although we stick together it seems
That we are stranging one another

(Chorus)

Feel it on me, love

Feel it on me, love

Feel it on me, love

(Strangeness and charm)

See it on me, love

See it on me, love

See it on me, love

(Strangeness and charm)

An atom to atom

Oh can you feel it on me, love?

A pattern to pattern

Oh can you see it on me, love?

Atom to atom

Oh what's the matter with me, love?

Strangeness and charm

The static of your arms

It is the catalyst

You're a chemical that burns

There's nothing like this

It's the purest element

But it's so volatile

An equation heaven sent

And you'll forever inject

Strangeness and charm

(Chorus)

Strangeness and charm

The static of your arms

It is the catalyst

You're a chemical that burns

There's nothing like this

It's the purest element

But it's so volatile

An equation heaven sent

And you'll forever inject

Strangeness and charm...

The static of your arms

It is the catalyst

You're a chemical that burns

There's nothing like this

It's the purest element

But it's so volatile

An equation heaven sent

Feel it on me, love

Feel it on me, love

Feel it on me, love

(Strangeness and Charm)

See it on me, love

See it on me, love

See it on me, love

(Strangeness and Charm)

Feel it on me, love

Feel it on me, love

Feel it on me, love

(Strangeness and Charm)

See it on me, love

See it on me, love

See it on me, love

(Strangeness and Charm)

Oh, Oh, Down, down down down (x4)
