Dance party in the crowd
Hey, woah oh oh

It's almost seven, yeah and you can hardly wait
Your friends are calling, texting begging you don't be late
So excited that you're finding it hard to breathe
Lights shining through the window from your driveway
Hop in the car and the radio starts to play
So hot it's a picture perfect scene

Throw your hands in the air
Sing so loud the world can hear
Jump up and down we're gonna rock this town
Till your worries disappear

Let's start a dance party in the crowd
There's nothing that could ever stop us now
Shake your hips and everybody sing it loud
woah oh oh
Let's start a dance party in the crowd
There's nothing that could ever stop us now
Shake your hips and everybody sing it loud
Let's start a dance party in the crowd
Hey woah oh oh
Dance party in the crowd

Rocking your favorite vintage tee
Got your leather studded belt and your new ripped jeans
As you pay your admission to the show
Sneaking down from the balcony
Sweet talking your way past security
Dancing your way to the front row

Throw your hands in the air
Sing so loud the world can hear
Jump up and down we're gonna rock this town
Till your worries disappear

Let's start a dance party in the crowd

There's nothing that ever can stop us now
Shake your hips and everybody's singing loud
woah oh oh
Let's start a dance party in the crowd
There's nothing that ever can stop us now
Shake your hips and everybody's singing loud
Let's start a dance party in the crowd
Hey woah oh oh

We won't run
We won't hide
We'll let the dance party go all night
Set the stage
Kill the lights
We come alive

Throw your hands in the air
Sing so loud the world can hear
Jump up and down we're gonna rock this town
Till your worries disappear

Let's start a dance party in the crowd
There's nothing that ever can stop us now
Shake your hips and everybody's singing loud
woah oh oh
Let's start a dance party in the crowd
There's nothing that ever can stop us now
Shake your hips and everybody's singing loud
Let's start a dance party in the crowd
Hey woah oh oh
