I know every word she wrote
In the diary she keeps hidden in her coat
She knows every song I wrote
She sings along with every single note

But we're growing up and changing
Before the clocks start fading
I feel like I'm losing my best friend

I want us be round and round
Turning back the clocks now
Flip it up, right side, and upside down
Ready, set, no regret
Turning back the clocks now
Best friends till the end
Turning back the clocks

I know every secret she holds
Staying up all night and talking on the phone
She knows every time my heart broke
She dried my eyes and taught me how to cope

But we're growing up and changing
Before the clocks start fading
I feel like I'm losing my best friend

I want us be round and round
Turning back the clocks now
Flip it up, right side, and upside down
Ready, set, no regret
Turning back the clocks now
Best friends till the end
Turning back the clocks
Clocks

We keep losing time
I wish that we're a movie
So I could hit rewind

I want us be round and round
Turning back the clocks now

Flip it up, right side, and upside down
Ready, set, no regret
Turning back the clocks now
Best friends till the end
Turning back the clocks

Round and round
Turning back the clocks now
Flip it up, right side, and upside down
Ready, set, no regret
Turning back the clocks now
Best friends till the end
Turning back the clocks

Slumber parties, pillow fights
Staying up school nights
Never wrong, always right
Best times, --- *
Round round spin around
Time is ticking, counting down
Turning back the clocks now
Turning back the clocks
The clocks
Clocks
Turning back the clocks now (2x)
Turning back the clocks
