Do you remember
When we thought we had it all
Do you remember
When we thought we'd never fall

Do you recall
We had it all
Do you remember
When your ego knocked me down

Do you remember
That you never came around
Do you recall
You let me fall

So why should I love you
It gets through the air
Let's just end this story chapter
There goes my happily ever after

When you have to say goodbye
Just remember
Swallow your pride

Do you remember
When that week was lagging you
Do you remember
That we had nothing to fear
Well we were wrong, my dear

So why should I love you
It gets through the air
Let's just end this story chapter
There goes my happily ever after

When you have to say goodbye
Just remember
Swallow your pride

I don't remember
That my friends was so unfair

There's no rapunzel
To let down her hair
No shining armor
Just a simple goodbye
I don't remember
One upon a time

Do you remember
When we thought we had it all
So why should I love you
It gets through the air
Let's just end this story chapter
There goes my happily ever after

When you have to say goodbye
Just remember
Swallow your pride
Swallow your pride
Just remember
Swallow your pride
