"Oh Lord! When? How?"

He'll pick a moment he'll take a chance He'll invite us all to a fatal dance Such a man and such a mess - It's not an easy guess I know that look I know that face I'd better get ready to hunt and trace Bit by bit and on and on -And then he's gone

OH LORD! WHEN? HOW?
Such a major mess -It's not an easy guess

For a second or two he might appear It takes a second or less and he'll disappear Such a man and such a mess -It's not an easy guess
