This is where the day begins and I can't stop this world from spinnin'
But if I could, I would live each moment like a first time, like a first
Time

You got me from the get go and I
Don't want to let go
This is real
I can feel my heartbeat for the first time
Morning comes like a new song
Everyone singing along
This is real
I can feel my heartbeat for the first time, for the first
time

I feel the sunrise on my skin
A brand new day and I am living
No more chains to hold me down
I'm flyin' for the first time, for the first time

You got me from the get go and I
Don't want to let go
This is real
I can feel my heartbeat for the first time
Morning comes like a new song
Everyone singing along
This is real
I can feel my heartbeat for the first time, for the first
time

You got me from the get go and I
Don't want to let go
This is real
I can feel my heartbeat for the first time
Morning comes like a new song
Everyone singing along
This is real
I can feel my heartbeat for the first time, for the first
time
