[spoken]
Yeah!
Mac Demy!
FTP Go!
OK!
Here we go, here we go - Mac Demy, yeah letÂ's go!

[verse 1]
Don't know why you try and play me
When I know you mess around it drives me crazy
(I know)
I see you standing over there
Walking around without a care and there I am

And I don't want you coming around lately
When you don't ever do a damn thing - call me lazy

It's not ok that we be fighting all the time
We keep fighting all the time - a sign
(LetÂ's go)

[chorus]
I don't want to love you lately
When you keep calling all the time it's irritating
When we're together with another call me baby
Look at others with your eyes you're contemplating

I don't want to love you lately
When you keep calling all the time it's irritating
When we're together with another call me baby
Look at others with your eyes you're contemplating

[verse 2]
(Yeah!)
And I know you want me
I see you standing there
But for a moment in the end won't really want me here

And if you're going I'ma get you where you want to be Just so you know that you and me will never ever be

I see you sitting over there I look at you every day

Don't want me lately so what do I have to say

Maybe it's better that you and I aren't meant to be So turn around I'll close the door and you can keep the key
[chorus]

[bridge]
I think you want me
I think I want you
Then you don't want me
I see you want him too

You drive me crazy
I think I want you
You drive me crazy
I see you want him too

When no one's there
And I'm your world
I'm your man
And you're my girl

I'm so convenient for you
You know that I adore you
Not lately I implore you
Not sure you want me to

You wanna play me
But you can't fake me
Something just isn't right
Here's where I say goodnight
