"Ha Ha Wall"

If you get tired of just hanging around
Pick up a guitar and spin a web of sound
Then you could be strung out all day with your lovers and clowns
But now I find myself hanging around

It's been a long war we're tired and dirty
Still not dirty enough for you

I've been thieving
I stole the light from the dawn
And if you come round this ledge you wish you'd never been born
Oh tell me you can see me
Can't you see through it all?
I'm empty lost and alone
Oh won't you heed my call?
It's been a long war we're so tired and dirty
Still not dirty enough for you my love

I'm so tired of hanging around
I'll pick up a guitar and spin a web of soundss

So tired, of hangin around
Just hangin around
just hangin around
