Everyone knows the baby's unhappy
Another day in paradise
In a world where you never grow old
Warms my bones and melts the ice
So what's wrong, with my best friend
If to me her hand is lent
It's all bringing me down
It's not alright

Hold on tighter to
The friends that you made in the life that you once knew
She' not mine
And I won't change one thing got a moving line
She's not mine
And I won't change one thing

Mother dear oh I am so sorry
Father friend I feel so bad
Brother tried and failed to hate me
Even if he raised his hand
Sister sister please don't wake me
Won't you please try understand
Cos things just seem to overtake me
Self indulgence not the plan

Hold on tighter to
The friends that you made in the life you once knew
She's not mine
And I won't change one thing
Got a moving line
She's not mine
And I won't change one thing

Oh I wish I never shook your hand (x5)
