"Teflon"

Just don't know the layman's terms to call the mess you bleed Crawls beneath the surface sought blood through a family tree

The date's been changed
with each new phase
I'm anxious bouts of nervous

What am I without the bruises?
These switches won't come on
What do I do to lose it?
Beneath this distress call

Let the wheels burn, let the wheels burn
Stack the tires to the neck with a body inside [x2]

Frames of infrared keep scrolling into focus Scarab claimed the busy signal with the habits that you noticed

The date's been changed
with each new phase
I'm anxious bouts of nervous

What am I without the bruises?
These switches won't come on
What do I do to lose it?
Beneath this distress call

Let the wheels burn, let the wheels burn
Stack the tires to the neck with a body inside [x2]

Take in all the hostages into the Oval Office Draw the curtains, part their hair and pull the trigger softly

If they have become empty then I'll just take you with me One driver in your motorcade is all it takes, is all it takes

Selling graves in teflon veins
is all it takes is all it takes

What am I without the bruises?
These switches won't come on
What do I do to lose it?
Beneath this distress call

Let the wheels burn, let the wheels burn
Stack the tires to the neck with a body inside [x2]
