Ohhooo ooo

Sat on the floor mmm

Who'd have thought that we'd be,
Split by two roads in our destiny
That, that is barren to me
Like love had never touched a damn thing

Don't know what to feel no more (to feel)
Do we turn walk away
From this thing we know
We try to uphold the concern
Just say goodbye and hope that we'll learn

What will you do when
Do when the kingdom falls
I don't know
I'm feeling that since it's changed
Right before our eyes
What will we
Do when the stars don't shine
I'll always be in never impala
So love, love,

What will you do when
Do when the kingdom falls
I don't know
I'm feeling that since it's changed
Right before our eyes
What will we
Do when the stars don't shine
I'll always be in never impala
So love, love,

We tried our best
But couldn't seem to pull through (oooh)
We gave our everything to get an understand
Heart in a hand
Never seem to find the things so show you
I'll always be in never impala

Blood that is deep as can be
It hurts yeah I'm lost but I'm feeling free
You spread your wings for me
I hope and pray you find a better day

Don't know what to feel no more (to feel)
Cause we've turn walk away
From this thing we know
No need to uphold the concern
We've said goodbye and hope that we'll learn

What will you do
Do when the kingdom falls
I don't know
I'm feeling that since it's changed
Right before our eyes
What will we
Do when the stars don't shine
I'll always be in never impala

What will you do
Do when the kingdom falls
I don't know
I'm feeling that since it's changed
Right before our eyes
What will we
Do when the stars don't shine
I'll always be in never impala

We tried our best
But couldn't seem to pull through (oooh)
We gave our everything to get an understand
Heart in a hand
Never seem to find the things so show you
I'll always be in never impala

Love, love, love, love, love
Love, love, love, loveeee
Love, love, love, love, love
Love, love, love, loveeee

Cause I don't know what to feel no more!
Cause we've turned walked away
From the thing we know
No need to uphold the concern
Just say goodbye and hope that you'll learn

oooooohh oooo
What would you do
If your kingdom fell down yeaahh

Can't take no more cause the love has gone
Ohh hoow
