"Small"

If I could be the king of this planet
I would order some more.
Making rules is not the easiest part of it,
That's a thing that I know.

Can see the mess,
Which has caused so much trouble.
Then I guess that it's
Poison which bubbles.
I'll say it loud,
That I'm not proud
About this kind of situation.

Asking for help from the assholes with power
Is one way to betray.
See trashes coming double an hour.
Scaring, I would say.

Human race will be judged by the Devil.
That's the last thing I want.
To face destiny 'n' choke in this reef.
Be crushed, you're so weak.

Keep laughing to the end of my world.
I know I'm feeling so small,
Don't shame it at all,
With pleasure I tell you my friend.

Keep laughing to the end of my world.
But it's here and it's now,
I'm gonna tell you somehow,
Then I won't say even a word.
