Here we go again,
We ain't gonna bend
to pretend it's a fight against the majority.

Lip service sucks,
yeah, you know it sucks, hate inside of me is breaking me, hurting me,
killing me, burning me.

We are still living, we should party, yeah!
Well well, you can always tell.

Here we go again,
in the world of lie,
try to please everyone
by being flexible.

This narrow atmosphere is restricting words you say, hate inside me is
breaking me, hurting me,
killing me, burning me

It doesn't matter whether you hate or love me.
