Nate Sallie
"Undercover"

I wear my sword right up on my sleeve
(Never really doubt about it)
My wall has writing for you to see
(Never really doubt about it)

If you can't spell it out
When you read me
Then I'll love to let you in
I can't keep it in

You know what I believe
It's not a mystery or an undercover belief

I'm just a little bit out of tune
(Never really doubt about it)
With what the world is singing you
(Never really doubt about it)

I could stand up and join the crowds
[Incomprehensible]
But I wouldn't fit in if I do
I can't keep it in
I wanna let you in

You know what I believe
It's not a mystery or a secret part of me
well I keep locked away until I hear you say
How do you want that way

And I don't ever want anyone when it's all said and done
Saying, "Why didn't you tell me?"
'Cause I want the world to say
It's not an undercover belief

I'm feeling more than a point of view
(Never really doubt about it)
More than red string [Incomprehensible]
(Never really doubt about it)

Never thought to try would leave you high and dry
Until you reach out for the truth

I can't keep it in
I wanna let you in

You know what I believe
It's not a mystery or a secret part of me
Well I keep locked away until I hear you say
How do you want that way

And I don't ever want anyone when it's all said and done
Saying, "Why didn't you tell me?"
'Cause I want the world to say
It's not an undercover belief

Why do we get so blinded by our needs
To live our life in perfect harmony

If there's no practice in your preach
Then it's true your talking is cheap
But if you live I want you to say
This whole world will hear you speak, yeah

The cross tells us
That God understands our sins
And I'll suffer
And from the cross
Got the claims 'I love you'

It's not an undercover belief
It's not an undercover belief
No, no
It's not an undercover belief
