I've got a black cat walking across my path
And big red monkey that's on my back
And every time I try to run I fall off the track
Seems that since we parted ways everything's gone bad

And now my head is swimming with the tell tale signs
That my world is going under can you throw me a line
With my eyes wide open I still feel blind
When said I didn't need you, I was telling a lie

And now I know
That I need you in my life

And I feel like I'm going out of my mind
And feel like I'm always running out of time
And feel like without you
My life is coming unglued

And I feel like I can't live, one more day
One more night of my life
Without you, without you
Without you, without you

Now, I really am trying to get you back
'Cause it's true that missing you is what makes me sad
And every time I try to think of the time we had
I see the way I treated you and it makes me mad

Now, my life's like a movie that's in rewind
And I need to get away leave it all behind
With the love you gave, you have saved my life
You offered me eternity and you paid the price

And I feel like I'm going out of my mind
And feel like I'm always running out of time
And feel like without you
My life is coming unglued

And I feel like I can't live, one more day
One more night of my life

Without you, without you
Without you, without you

And I feel like I'm going out of my mind
And feel like I'm always running out of time
And feel like without you
My life is coming unglued

And I feel like I can't live, one more day
One more night of my life
Without you, without you
Without you, without you

Without you, without you
Without you, without you
Without you, without you
Without you, without you

One more day, one more night
One more day, one more night of my life
Without you
