You don't understand all the love that I gave you
You ma everything girl why would I play you
Your last man was a clown I came to save you
So what makes you think that I ain't gonna stay true

Stop making excuses, it aint about the bling
It Aint about whether or not I lace you in pretty things
Nope, its about having a little patience
Because you cant just have me under surveillance

I don't even know why you've a change of heart
We've been here before, why you tearing us apart
Day after day, try to make things go your way
But whatever I say, you still think im tryna play
I remember when we was all bout having fun
Now I don't feel secure, cus of whats been said and done
Girl it's a shame, cus I'd do almost anything
I'm tired of the games its always the same

Round and round we go
Your love, it changes like the weather
And baby don't you know
I tried to keep us girl together
We got love, just let it flow
We're not together, girl forever
Then I don't wanna know
you trust in me we'll make it better
It's like round and round we go

Girl you telling me its different now and things have changed
Should I breathe easy now you said you won't need to stay
How many times are you gon spin that same old line
Girl you and I, need to put this damn thing right
We cant hide that fact that we're not seeing eye to eye
I know you feel it to cus you cant even sleep at night
I'm not to blame, you know that I've tried everything
Girl it's a shame its happening again

Round and round we go
Your love, it changes like the weather
And baby don't you know
I tried to keep us girl together
We got love, just let it flow
We're not together, girl forever
And I don't wanna know
you trust in me we'll make it better
It's like round and round we go

Your love, it changes like the weather
And baby don't you know
I tried to keep us girl together
We got love, just let it flow
We be together, girl forever
And I don't wanna know
you trust in me we'll make it better
It's like round and round we go

Baby, baby
I try so hard
Not to let go
And I know that we can make it through stormy weather
And if we don't try
Then I just cant be here cus

Round and round we go
Your love, it changes like the weather
And baby don't you know
I tried to keep us girl together
Try to keep us together
We're not together, girl forever
And I don't wanna know
you trust in me we'll make it better
It's like round and round we go

Your love it changes like the weather
Don't you know
I try to keep us girl together
Together baby
We're not together, girl forever
And I don't wanna know
You trust in me well make it better
It's like round and round we go

Your love it changes like the weather
I try to keep up girl together
We got love just let it flow
We not together girl forever
And I don't wanna know
you trust in me we'll make it better

It's like round and round we go

Your love, it changes like the weather
And baby don't you know
I tried to keep us girl together
We got love just let it flow
We not together, girl forever
And I don't wanna know
you trust in me we'll make it better
It's like round and round we go
