"Lullaby"

You've Been looking for god You've been down on your knees Will the Angels believe you now?
Wanting more than the bliss of a beautiful kiss from the lips of the one who fell well its hard to tell...

Its like an opium dream through your psyche it streams it relieves and believes the pain that you fought in vain oh no....please don't wave goodbye, wave goodbye

because your sleeping tonight
sleeping tonight
safe in the arms of morpheus you've escaped through these means these delirious dreams helped to shelter and sooth your soul the regrettable roles the salvation they sold satisfied your desire to burn and now you've learned?

sleeping tonight

and were waving goodbye you're sleeping tonight
safe in the arms of morpheus
