Searching and I finally found
Someone who could cure all my lonely
Won't let you go no way boy no how
I'm a make you as my one and only
You've got me helpless call me selfish I don't care
Long as I got you I'm alright, baby
And I can't help that I'm so happy when you're there
I won't let no one have what's all mine, yeah
Love, I ain't never gonna give you back your love
So won't you give it to me babe
Just know I play for keeps
She never gonna get none of your love
So you better tell her baby
That that's all me

So long since I've felt this way yeah
I can't stop from smiling
Shouldn't the right things to say
Can't stop my fingers from dialing
You got me helpless call me selfish I don't care
Long as I got you I'm alright, baby
And I can't help that I'm so happy when you're there
I won't let no one have what's all mine, yeah
Love, I ain't never gonna give you back your love
So won't you give it to me babe
Just know I play for keeps
She never gonna get none of your love
So you better tell her baby
That that's all me
I ain't never gonna give you back your love
She never gonna get none of your love
So you better tell her baby
That that's all me
