"The Watcher"

I'm the unseen
I'm disbelief...I'm undone

You are a dream
You are desire...You're the one

If you show me what I'm missing
If you tell me I would listen to you
Guide me through the night

And please...watch over me
And please...
And please...watch over me
Because I can't carry on...without you

These are the days
When everything's changed...look around

Dancing I fall
I fall through these cracks that surround

If you show me what I'm missing
If you tell me I would listen to you
Guide me through the night

And please...watch over me
And please...watch over me
And please...watch over

I'm burning like a fire without end
As I'm turning into storm clouds twisting in the wind
I surrender everything...remember everything

And please...watch over me
Because I've fallen down
And I can't carry on
No I won't carry on...without you
