She had an earthquake on her mind
I almost heard her cry out as I left her far behind
And knew the world was crashing down around her

I sink now to the ocean floor
'Cause I know that we are more
But I've made this mess
I built this fire, are you still mine?

'Cause baby, I'm not alright when you go
I'm not fine, please be all mine
I never want you to go because I am all yours
So please be all mine
Please be all mine

She had an earthquake on her mind
Apparently the kind that would bury us alive
By putting all this weight on us forever
(Please be all mine)

I lie here on the ocean floor
(Please be all mine)
Broken castle by the shore
And I made this mess
I built this fire, are you still mine?

'Cause baby, I'm not alright when you go
I'm not fine, please be all mine
I never want you to go because I am all yours
So please be all mine

Let me save us
I've slaughtered us, I've murdered our love
I can taste it
This blood in my mouth, this knife in my lungs

Have I murdered our love?
Have I murdered our love?

'Cause baby, I'm not alright when you go
I'm not fine, yeah, please be all mine
I never want you to go because I am all yours

So please be all mine

'Cause baby, I'm not alright when you
Baby, I'm not alright when you go
(When you go)
Please be all mine

I never want you to go because I am all yours
So please be all mine
Please be all mine, mine
