Tonight may not be the best night; I walk over and see you cry,
I hold you tight and tell you everything will be alright,
You're the sunny dawn to my stormy night,
Take my breath away; our love will be my tomb,

I'll keep you safe till the day I die,
And on my stone it will say I love you, trust me it's no lie,
Give me a needle,
You can be my shot of love,

Tonight may not be the best night; but don't worry you can wake up with me, I'll hold you tight till everything will be alright,
The storm will go and in the morning I'll make you breakfast,
Take my breath away; our love will be my tomb.
