"Killing A Ghost"

Trapped inside, we've gone out of control.
Lose the charm, find a way to resolve.

Repressed, are we going insane again?
Best of enemies, worst of friends.

Now I'm starting to see
What lies ahead between you and me.

It's about time we end this story, right now.
It's been dragging us down.
It's about time we end this story, right now.
It's been dragging us down a well.

Miserable, we got nowhere to go.
Like a bomb, ready set to explode.

It comes down when we're all alone.
You're spitting that game and I'm chewing it up.

We're a nightmare taking over a dream.
Could it make sense if we faked it completely?

It's about time we end this story, right now.
It's been dragging us down.
It's about time we end this story, right now.
It's been dragging us down.

I tried to put an end to this tonight,
It's like killing a ghost, killing a ghost, killing a ghost.

Trapped and we can't escape tonight,
It's like killing a ghost, killing a ghost, killing a ghost.

It's about time we end this story, right now.
It's been dragging us down.
(Hey!)
It's about time we end this story...

It's about time we end this story, right now.
It's been dragging us down.

It's about time we end this story, right now.
It's been dragging us down a well.

It's been dragging us down.
It's like killing a ghost, killing a ghost, killing a ghost.
It's about time we end this story.
It's like killing a ghost, killing a ghost, killing a ghost.
