Come on come on come on
Your love shows many colours
Roses will show their thorns
You showed me signs of silence,
Showed me my way back home.
I break my back right over,
I dance on broken glass.
I hold my breath half to death,
You can't forget the past.
Unless you think it's not over,
Let's kiss it goodbye.
Is it really worth it?
Is it all just a lie?
Not like I'm giving up now, I am willing to try.
Unless you think it's not over,
Let's kiss it goodbye.
Come on come on!
You break your back right over,
You can't on broken glass.
Although you'll always love me,
You can't forget the past.
Unless you think it's not over,
Let's kiss it goodbye.
Is it really worth it?
Is it all just a lie?
Not like I'm giving up now, I am willing to try.
Unless you think it's not over,
Let's kiss it goodbye.
My love shows many colours,
Devils will show them horns
I lead you into darkness,
Hoping will lead us home
You break your back right over,
You can't on broken glass.
Although you'll always love me,
You can't forget the past.
