"You're Pretty Good Looking"

Oh yeah you're pretty good looking for a girl but your back is so broken and this feeling's still gonna linger on until the year 2525 now yeah you're pretty good looking for a girl your eyes are wide open and your thoughts have been stolen by the boys who took you out and bought you everything you want now yeah you're pretty good looking

oh yeah
you're pretty good looking yes you're pretty good looking
oh yeah
for a girl

lots of people in this world but I want to be your boy to me that thought is sounding so absurd and I don't wanna be your toy cause you're pretty good looking for a girl my future's wide open but this feeling's still gonna linger on until I know everything I need to know now yeah you're pretty good looking

oh yeah
you're pretty good looking
oh yeah
for a girl
