"There Is None"

[Verse 1]

I couldn't find you
Last night for quite some time
Wishing to tell you
Everything running through my mind
We would have drove down
Over the bridge and towards the sea
Parking the sad car
In between 24th and 5th

[Chorus]

I want to write a song about our love
But there is none

[Verse 2]

Still I continue
Driving the lonely road
My thoughts running over
Humming a sad forgotten song
Wasting all our time
That you're spending with someone else

[Chorus]

[Bridge]

Satiate my mind
And calm my nerves to look and find
Words that aren't enough
And never show a single piece of my mind

[Chorus x2]
