

5man "Bear The Weight"

Visit "Bear The Weight" on MotoLyrics.com

It was in our hands and all we had to do was give it life.
But betrayed plans cut us right back down to size.
It's a crying shame and it's yours and mine.
If it feels like a lie, before we're used to wearing it lets bury our disguise.
It's about time to get things straight or bear the weight of living in denial.
It's a crying shame and it's yours and mine.
We both know how this should go.
If you give it away (that's right) that's the price you pay.
It's a crying shame and it's yours and mine.
We both know how this should go.
