“Ladies and gentlemen, this is your captain speaking...
Eyes to the front. Toes to the line. Let me give you a piece of your mind.
Nation, report to your station. Everyone here has a role and it’s time to go. (Let’s go!)
My observation is that your elation should come from the draining of you for a rise in the price of gold.
So MOLD.
And HOLD.
Now’s not the time. Let’s keep order.
You really need not worry your pretty head, though I
see the wheels turning.
Do not test this scheme.
I meant to say dream.
You may feel like you’re selling you soul but it’s all
for the cause.
And when we’re done, you’ll say you had fun...or whatever the hell other lines I give you to say.
So MOLD.
And HOLD.
Now’s not the time. Let’s keep order.
You really need not worry your pretty head, though I
see the wheels turning.
I’ve watched you for so long. How could you let yourself get in the way of such a beautiful dream?
I will make you beautiful.”
