Like a heavy cloud
I hear your calling
To be the mornin' star
when you fall apart
when you fall apart

Though you're far away
a million miles apart
I will stand alone
to hear your name
In the midst of rain
in forests of the night
I will stand alone
to show you the way

Like the stars above
in our galaxy
I will make you shine
When you tear apart
When you tear apart

Though you're far away
a million miles apart
I will stand alone
to hear your name
In the midst of rain
in forests of the night
I will stand alone
to show you the way
