I'm always coming back for you no matter what you put me through and though your parents hat-e me so I juste want you tu know
I'll always bring it right here back to you

I know you don't clean up the crib
I wish you'd cook a little bit
I stay out late you're throwing fits
Always bring it back to you
Sometimes I wonder why?

I'm back for you
I'm back for you
I'm back for you
I'm back for you

I know you friends get on my nerves
I'll still play scrabble with those nerds and even when you snore at night
I'll be there to hold you tight
Sometimes I wonder why?
I'm back for you
I'm back for you
I'm back for you
I'm back for you

I don't know what happened to me
But sometimes it's love whos choosing you
I know u ain't the finest thang
But I swear u the one girl
I don't know why I'm so into you
But I'll stand for your love and even with you wandering eye...

I'm back for you
I'm back for you
I'm back for you
I'm back for you
