From now on, we stay strong
I think that we'll do what we like
Cause life's in short supply
From now on we hold on
We live the memories we have
The good without the bad
You said, trust the words I am speaking
Don't let it bring you down, don't let it bring you down

Cause now we're falling forward,
Everyone tells me that the party's over
That's them but not you till you tell me something good
Something I wish you would just tell me if you could Just tell me something good

From now on, we stay strong
We take it slow and make it right cause life's in short supply
We're so young for how long it's like the things we do right
We leave them all behind
Instead trust the words I am speaking
Don't let it bring you down, don't let it bring you down

Cause now we're falling forward,
Everyone tells me that the party's over
That's them but not you till you tell me something good
Something I wish you would just tell me if you could Something good

Am I just thinking out loud or are you with me
Come on, I'm calling you out, are you with me
Are you with me
Are you with me

Falling forward, everyone tells me that the party's over
That's them but not you till you tell me something good
Something I wish you would just tell me if you could
Just tell me something good

Falling forward, everyone tells me that the party's over

That's them but not you till you tell me something good
Something I wish you would just tell me if you could
Just tell me something good
Just tell me something good
