Walking in the park and the conversation turned To things we've never done, stuff we're not too proud of
And you ask me if, given a chance would I want this life
I have
Over, over, what are you trying to say?

'Cause there's no way, don't know how you can ask me
I'm damned if I'd do it again
No, there's no way, don't know where you been living
Why would you want such a thing?
Don't say everything'll be alright

Good is like a dragonfly, brushing me and passing by
But most of the time I'm just fighting off the cold
If only hope can pull you through with odds like that I would never, never go back, you're asking in vain

'Cause there's no way, don't know how you can ask me
I'm damned if I'd do it again
No, there's no way, don't know where you been living
Why would you want such a thing?
Don't say everything'll be alright

All this slithering, this falling away from grace
I've been looking for the gold, but not in the right place
Hope is what I hope for every day
And since you're asking

No, there's no way, don't know how you can ask me
I'm damned if I'd do it again
No, there's no way, don't know where you been living
Why would you want such a thing?
Don't say everything'll be alright

No, there's no way, don't know how you can ask me
I'm damned if I'd do it again
No, there's no way, don't know where you been living
Why would you want such a thing?
Don't say everything'll be alright

Oh, no, there's no way

No, no, no way
Everything'll be alright
