Now baby I know, we've been in so many altercations
It ain't nothing we can't handle
Girl, I know this time that we're been facing, yeah
But it don't feel like jail time
Cause I still wanna be your man, though We've been down before, but we can get up off the floor
All the yelling, all the fighting, all the arguing
We can still win, whoa

Our love, our love still rising up, rising up, rising up, rising up, yeah
Our love, our love still rising up, rising up, rising up,
rising up, yeah

Baby I love you

Baby I'm just so in love
And that ain't nowhere so...
I promise you
Even through all the fighting
Girl I know you're worth fighting for Girl you know you're my everything
Baby, sugar, sweet honey darling,
My everything oh,
Don't ever think that I'm exaggerating
Cause that just ain't the case baby, whoa.
