Some other day I could stay here in your arms.
Some other day this would be more that I want,
but now I am too anxious to see what I have not

Ain't this the place I have been?
Ain't these the faces I've seen ?
Ain't these the tears I've cried long time ago?
Ain't these the voices I've heard?
Ain't this the lesson I've learned?
Ain't these the tears I've cried long time ago?

I understand if you can't wait.
Some other day I could be yours

and no more a fake. Some other day
I need to hear your voice. I'll make my choice.

This is the time for me to say goodbye.
Don't ask me many questions coz' I am too shy
to tell you all the answers and explain why.

Ain't this....

I understand....
